Consider & Reflect

There are things we bring to the table — abilities and talents. Do we have the faith to create spaces for God's Kingdom to thrive in the world? Do we see the cessation of those gifts as a part of creating that space?
Do we trust this reality enough to sabbath?

Exodus 31:12–15

Consider & Reflect

Do you have a space of sabbath in your life?

Does this space facilitate the reflection on God's nature and how that relates to you? Do you have space to actually connect with the person of God on a heart level, or is it all action and “spiritual production”?

Consider & Reflect

Are you intimate enough with this practice of sabbath that it makes a difference for others around you? Could you explain it and pass it on to the generations who follow you?
